

Information on the Digitization of our Optical Connector Cleaner Instruction Manuals

October, 2018

The design of product packaging will be changed to eliminate the instruction manual (printed matter) that used to be included in the optical connector cleaner packing box to accompany the change to a manual download from the web.

The web page address (URL) and QR code will be printed on the packing box exterior of each cleaner.

Modification e.g. (Product package)

Instruction Manual page guidance (QR code and URL)

Cleaner Product page guidance (search window and URL)

※ The Instruction Manual can also be accessed from the Product page.
